SENIOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS REPRESENTATIVE

Regional System Plan (RSP15) Report Schedule and Process

- July 7: Draft RSP15 Report posted for review and comment
 - The report is posted in MS Word as a CEII-protected document
 - Readers are cautioned: Do not quote or cite the draft report
- July 23: By close of business, all written comments due from PAC members to pacmatters@iso-ne.com
 - ISO requires time to summarize comments for stakeholder discussion
- August 6: Planning Advisory Committee (PAC) discussion of submitted comments
- September 10: RSP Public Meeting

RSP15 Comments – Due Close of Business July 23

- Stakeholder comments are a necessary part of the RSP process
 - As appropriate, comments have been reflected in past RSPs
- Comments must be relevant to information previously presented to PAC and not introduce new scopes of work
 - ISO has followed the scope of work discussed with PAC
 - The report is about 200 pages and provides references to detailed information
- Please focus comments on the substance of the report
 - ISO’s Technical Editor will reflect comments in the report as appropriate to avoid repetition, etc.
 - The final report will be fully copy edited, contain revised footnotes with live links, and will reflect updates to items marked in yellow within the report
- The commentator will be made public unless ISO receives a request to keep the commentator anonymous
- Original comments will be posted on the ISO website and will be CEII protected
- Comments must be sent to ISO in MS Word or MS PowerPoint or Outlook
 - Please indicate the pages or section numbers up front in the document
 - Redline comments of the draft RSP15 are acceptable
 - Do not send comments in PDF format to facilitate ISO summary of all comments
